EDIA commitment statement

Communities, Culture, Tourism & Heritage supports our communities to thrive by promoting active living, tourism, and Nova Scotia's diverse culture, heritage, and languages. We pride ourselves in helping to grow communities and organizations by providing programs and services that support these areas.

We are committed to ensuring that our programs and services are free of discrimination and barriers, and value equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility (EDIA). By applying this lens, and ensuring it is a core value in our programs and decision-making processes, we are taking steps to address the long-standing systemic barriers that impact many communities in our province.

Communities, Culture, Tourism, and Heritage is committed to advancing equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility across Nova Scotia, and we support partners who share in this commitment.

1. Provide a detailed description of your project including dates, places, people or groups who will be participating, activities and any other information that describes your project (maximum of 250 words).

2. Briefly describe how your activity contributes to the celebration of Acadian heritage and corresponds to the theme: Honouring Acadian heritage, shaping the future (maximum 250 words).

3. Acknowledgement:
