

The 2026 Lieutenant Governor's Award of Excellence for l'Acadie and francophonie of Nova Scotia

Evaluation sheet

	Pride	Leadership	Participation
Selection criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Evidence of pride for the Acadian and francophone community - Interest in creating a sustainable community - Promotion of history, tradition and cultural heritage 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recognition of leadership - Ability to find solutions to community challenges - Willingness to initiate a positive change - Ability to build partnerships (formal and informal) - Inclusion and diversity principles 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participation to community-led initiatives - Support for recreational and cultural activities
Key words	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Sense of belonging to the Acadian and francophone community - Language and culture preservation - Protection of the environment - Economic development - Transmission of knowledge - Infrastructure development or preservation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Guide, influence, inspire - Shared vision, ability to rally - Determination, taking ownership - Changes according to different levels of the challenges - Mobilizing the community for a project/challenge - Development or improvement of structures, sustainable impact - Self-esteem, respect, building positive intergenerational relationships - Cohesion and collaboration - Personal and relationship development, inclusion of 2SLGBTQ+ individuals, immigrants, visible minorities, people with disabilities, and human rights 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recommendations, development or improvement of community policies - Involvement in the community as a volunteer or staff member - Use and optimization of the infrastructures - Preparation of funding applications for community development, programs, services - Information, communication, media
Score	/40	/45	/30
Total	/115		